CXS210 22/01/2022 13:30

The convoy of personal and commercial vehicles departed the area prior to noon. Currently there are no known vehicles in the area believed to be associated with the slow roll protest. The convoy did not enter CBSA premises at any time nor was any traffic impeded south or north bound. A further update will be provided.

SDR001 22/01/2022 11:29

Approximately 20-30 commercial trucks and passenger vehicles are currently lined up on the shoulder of highway 39 facing south at 1000hrs. The RCMP are onsite with 3 units monitoring the situation on the highway. US Border Patrol onsite monitoring on the US side. It appears there a few USCs on the US side of the ditch mingling and conversing with Cdns, situation being monitored by US Border Patrol & RCMP. It is unknown if there is a media presence at this time. There is a live Facebook feed of the event.

So far there has been no impact to the operation and no complaints from travelers going south. Currently all protest activities are taking place outside CBSA property. Traffic is flowing in both directions without issue. Duty Chief has been notified.

Updates to follow.
